

Jupiter Infomedia launches India's First Complete B2B Directory

Ahmedabad: B2B sourcing database for Volume Buyers in Print & Digital edition. JimTrade.com, which is India's largest Business Directory with a database of over 5,00,000 product profiles featured under 21,000 product categories, has launched these B2B Directories in both Digital Software format and Print version.

JimTrade.com is a vertical entirely owned by Jupiter Infomedia Ltd, a Web-Infomedia Company that is listed in BSE since 2012. Jupiter Infomedia also runs two other portals successfully - Indianetzone.com and JimYellowpages.com. Indianetzone.com is a comprehensive web encyclopaedia dedicated to provide well researched information about everything that is Indian. JimYellowpages.com is India's Largest Yellow Page Directory with 10,000 plus Business Listings.

Mr Umesh Modi, Chairman and Managing Director, Jupiter Infomedia said "This is a significant initiative by JimTrade.com after the remarkable success of launching "Directory of Industrial Products (Maharashtra)" which featured 10,000 manufacturers in over 3,500 product categories. This new Directory features over 2000 companies from Gujarat and has the most exhaustive pan-India

Specision on calling off Amarnath Yatra

New Delhi: The threats to the northern routes leading to the holy Amarnath temple in the state of Jammu and Kashmir have forced the government to consider the possibility of calling off the Amarnath Yatra for 15 weeks. The government has learned from the top security officials in the state and Kashmir that Pakistani personnel are manufacturing a range of weapons from the north of the border, including 300 rifles used on the the sniper, who would have been positioned around Sangam top. With JeM seeking to avenge the February 26 Indian air force strikes on its camp in Pakistan's Balakot camp, in which an unspecified number of its recruits were believed to have died, there has been a continuous flow of intelligence about the regrouping of the Pakistan-based group to attack Indian security forces in Kashmir.
